

Weddings with Saruni

Saruni offers couples a choice of two distinct wedding styles: a classical safari wedding ceremony or a traditional wedding and blessing ceremony. Whichever you select, our lodges provide the most beautiful setting for your special day, making it a truly magical and memorable event.

Price
US$3,000

Classic Saruni Safari Wedding Package

Mara | Samburu

Experience unparalleled romance and seclusion in Saruni's luxury lodges amidst pristine wilderness. This idyllic setting guarantees an unforgettable wedding, where exclusivity meets untouched nature in every direction. Celebrate your love in complete privacy, where serenity and adventure merge, and luxury harmonizes with authenticity. With sweeping views of open plains and private valleys at Saruni Mara, and endless rugged vistas at Saruni Samburu, your wedding becomes an extraordinary and breathtaking experience

Important to note:

- Saruni is delighted to offer intimate and personalized wedding experiences for up to 15 guests.
- We strongly recommend that couples have a civil marriage in their country of origin either before or after their visit to Kenya. This ensures that they have a marriage certificate from their country of origin and guarantees that all necessary formalities are duly fulfilled. If you have already completed the legalities in your home country and desire a celebration without the formal procedures, we are more than happy to arrange a memorable wedding celebration for you. Feel free to reach out to us for further details!

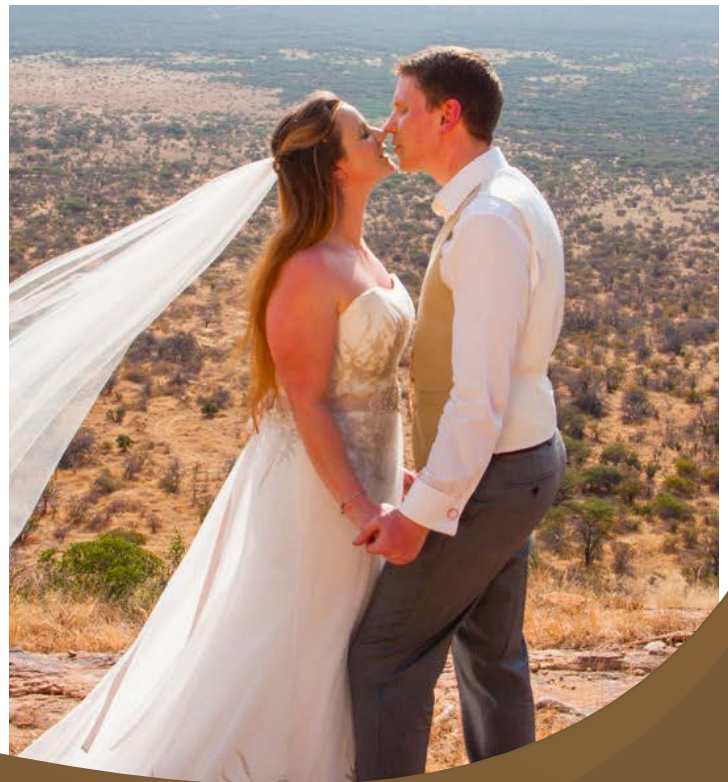

Services available at extra charge:

- Additional French champagne, premium wines and spirits
- Professional photographer and/or videographer: We need written confirmation from the client requesting for these extra services. The cost is provided on application as it will include the photographer/videographer's fees, return flights from Nairobi and accommodation charges at our lodges.

Saruni offers a classical wedding which is included in the rate:

- A decorated wedding location at the Lodge, featuring floral displays
- Flowers for the bride, bridesmaid and a boutonhole for the groom and best man
- A bottle of French Champagne and exclusive 'bitings' for the ceremony
- Wedding cake
- Witnesses (your guests, or you can choose traditional Maasai/Samburu tribesmen)
- An officiant
- Private wedding dinner
- Bush breakfast during your stay in Lodge
- Exclusive use of one of our 4x4 safari vehicles throughout your wedding day

Price
US$650

Traditional Blessing Ceremonies

Mara | Samburu

At Saruni, our dedicated teams take immense joy in honoring our guests' weddings within their cultural traditions. We are committed to going above and beyond to make your traditional wedding and blessing ceremony is not just memorable, but profoundly meaningful.

We offer both Maasai and Samburu blessing ceremonies, tailored for newlyweds seeking to bless their union or for married couples renewing their vows.

Saruni's traditional weddings and blessing ceremonies promise an authentic, one-of-a-kind, and understated experience. These ceremonies can be intimate and private or shared with family and friends, ensuring a truly heartfelt celebration of love and commitment.

Inclusions:

- Full assistance with ceremony planning
- Traditional Maasai/Samburu singing ceremony
- Traditional Maasai/Samburu Elders blessings
- Maasai/Samburu traditional clothes (shukas) and beaded jewellery
- A present for the bride and groom
- Private romantic lunch or dinner
- Homemade Cake
- A bottle of sparkling wine
- Assistance with photography if required at no charge. Client to provide camera and film

Services available at extra charge:

- Additional French champagne, premium wines and spirits
- Professional Photography / Video
- Professional Flower arrangement

